Grad student consulting club –

Looking to attract new students to exec board. See information below:

We are pleased to announce that the application for the Duke APD (Advanced/Professional Degree Candidate) Consulting Club Executive Board is now live. We currently have four openings:

- Secretary: take meeting minutes and write monthly updates for our website that summarizes the events that took place that month and what events are coming up next month.
- Webmaster: in charge of maintaining and updating our official website.
- Membership Development Chair: direct consulting education events (e.g. skills workshops, case interview sessions), find need for events, plan and organize events, communicate with companies and delegate tasks (marketing, food, room reservation, etc).
- Company Outreach Chair: find advanced degree recruiter and alumni at firms, keep track of club members about internship / full-time job opportunities, procure sponsorship (funding, panel session, mock interview workshop) from companies.

If you are a Duke Ph.D./M.D./J.D. student interested in any of the positions, please send your resume and your desired position to zhengzi.li@duke.edu by Sep 28 2011 midnight.

This information will also be sent via email. Please pass this on the your constituents.
