GPSC: ADVOCACY UPDATES

NC WAVE SUMMIT

From invitation (received from NCCASA):

"The North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NCCASA) in partnership with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCCADV) and the Student Planning Committee are excited to announce that registration is now open for the FREE 2018 SV/IPV Campus Student Advocates Summit, known as NC WAVE!

The NC WAVE (Working Against Violence for Everyone) Summit will be a chance for students and strong non-student allies from colleges and universities across North Carolina to learn from what others are doing to prevent sexual violence (SV) and intimate partner violence (IPV) on their campuses.

The NC WAVE Summit will be held at UNC-Greensboro on Saturday, February 17, 2018.

Participants will learn from other students and experts about how to be effective in SV/IPV prevention, what works on campus, and how to get started in, or continue, this work! The event will include many different types of sessions, such as small group discussions, panels, and speakers, and will involve intersectional analyses of the issues of SV and IPV. Agenda to follow in early 2018!

Registration is free but required for event attendance. Lunch and coffee will be provided. Survivor advocates will be available during the event." Register here!

NET NEUTRALITY

On December 14th, the FCC voted to repeal Net Neutrality. As significant generators and consumers of information, the operations of universities, researchers, and professional trainees stand to be uniquely impacted by the repeal of the Net Neutrality rules. As such, GPSC is committed to advocate against this repeal of protections for the people of the United States and their ability to effectively share and access information. We will be hosting advocacy events over the coming months, and invite you to help advocate and speak on this issue. Immediately, there are several events hosted at Duke concerning these issues, and we wish to make them known (SEE WEEKLY SCHEDULE BELOW).
